

THE COMPANY OF MERCHANT TAYLORS

HALL OPEN DAYS

FREE ADMISSION

Our Hall Open Days provide a wonderful opportunity for residents and visitors to the City of York to find out more about this medieval guild and to visit the ancient Hall. Built in 1415, it is one of York's buildings of historical importance. Learn about the history with guided tours from our Members.

The Hall will be opening its doors between 11.00 and 15.00 each day

Tuesday 13th November

Surprise Concert at the Taylors' Hall

11.30-12.30

Join us for the first in a short series of Surprise Concerts, held in partnership with the Department of Music at the University of York. Each concert will be given by a group of outstanding young musicians from the department but the details of the performers and programme won't be revealed until the day.

Admission is free but donations to the Company in support of young musicians in the City will be welcomed.

Refreshments available

Tickets must be reserved via Eventbrite:
